

2.4.3

Average teaching experience of full-time teachers (Data to be provided only for the latest completed academic year, in number of years)

Preamble

The average teaching experience of faculty members is a significant indicator of the depth of expertise and stability within the institution. The following data presents the average number of years of teaching experience for full-time teachers during the latest completed academic year. This metric reflects MITADTU's dedication to employing seasoned educators who bring valuable insights, pedagogical skills, and a wealth of knowledge to the classroom. By maintaining a faculty with substantial teaching experience, the institution supports its commitment to delivering high-quality education and fostering an enriching learning environment for students.
