MIT Art, Design and Technology University, Pune

5.4.1

Alumni contribution during the last five years (INR in lakhs) to the University through registered Alumni Association

Preamble

The university has benefited significantly from the generous contributions of its alumni through its registered Alumni Association- MAA- over the past five years. The total amount received from alumni contributions reflects their continued support and commitment to the institution's growth and development. Detailed annual audited statements of accounts, certified by a Chartered Accountant or Finance Officer, are available to verify these contributions. This financial support underscores the strong and enduring relationship between the university and its alumni, highlighting their ongoing investment in the institution's success.
